

ACTIVITY 1:

Reasons to contact the waiver case manager

INSTRUCTIONS: Read each scenario below and decide whether you need to contact the waiver case manager.

SCENARIO 1

You have been providing Eric employment development services, plan phase, for the past 75 days. You meet with Eric to create a plan for the final activities and experiences that you will set up and facilitate with him. During your meeting, Eric shares that he found out he needs to go in for surgery next week and will need to put his work with you on hold for about two months while he recovers.

Do you need to notify the case manager about this, and if so, why?

SCENARIO 2

You have been providing Debra with employment exploration services. After doing several exploration activities and experiences, Debra decides that she is excited about working at a veterinarian office and would like to begin job searching.

Do you need to contact her case manager or do you help her apply for VRS/SSB services and why?
